- (j) information on how complaints are dealt with, including our internal and external dispute resolution procedures; and
- (k) our compensation arrangements.

In addition to this FSG, you may, from time to time, receive from your Intermediary or Broker (as the case may be), other documents issued by FNZ Securities, including but not limited to our Best Execution Arrangements. Our Best Execution Arrangements contain important information about how your orders may be executed through a Relevant Exchange (such as ASX or Cboe) or otherwise. You should read the document summarising these arrangements carefully before deciding whether you wish to use the services that we offer.

Depending on the financial products that you wish to deal in, you may also receive a Product Disclosure Statement ("PDS") from FNZ Securities. The PDS will relate to financial products issued by FNZ Securities.

There are a number of circumstances in which FNZ Securities may not be required to provide a PDS including: where you are a wholesale client for the purposes of the Corporations Act; where you already have a current PDS; where you hold a financial product of the same kind and you have access to current information about that kind of financial product; or where the offer is made under a distribution reinvestment plan or switching facility.

In each case, the PDS contains details about the particular product and any significant risks associated with holding the product, any amounts that you must pay, and in the case of products which will or may generate a return, information about any commission or other similar payments that will or may impact on the amount of the returns payable to you.

Unless otherwise agreed with your Intermediary, FNZ Securities will not provide you with personal financial product advice. You should contact the Intermediary for any financial product advice which you require. FNZ Securities may, from time to time, provide you with general advice in the form of market information or general recommendations. The information we may provide does not provide advice about products suitable for your particular needs, objectives or financial circumstances. You should always consider the appropriateness of the advice in light of your own objectives, financial situation or needs before acting on the advice.

2. Who is responsible for and the provider of the financial services?

FNZ Custodians (Australia) Pty Ltd ("FNZ Securities", "the Company", "we", "our", "us") is a wholly owned subsidiary of FNZ Holdings Australia Pty Ltd ACN 138 819 146 ("Parent Company") and part of the FNZ Group, a global 'fintech' group of companies specialising in providing technology, custodial, administration and other support services to financial services businesses from around the world.

FNZ Securities is an Australian Financial Services Licensee under the Corporations Act (AFSL 507452). It is a participant of ASX, Cboe, ASX Clear Pty Limited (the clearing facility for transactions executed on or reported to ASX or Cboe) and ASX Settlement (the settlement facility operated by ASX Settlement Pty Limited).

FNZ Securities uses the nominee services provided by FNZ Nominee Pty Ltd ACN 654 429 740 ("FNZ Nominee"), during the transitional settlement period, in accordance with the Market Integrity Rules on behalf of clients of FNZ Securities. The Market Integrity Rules require that all financial products being held for a client during this period may only be registered under a nominee company. FNZ Nominee is the company that has been established to hold these financial products on your behalf in accordance with the Market Integrity Rules. These services are conducted under the Australian Financial Services Licence of FNZ Securities and FNZ Securities is responsible for the conduct of FNZ Nominee in respect of those services. FNZ Nominee is a wholly owned subsidiary of FNZ Securities.

3. What financial services will we provide to you?

FNZ Securities will, or is likely to provide general advice, execution, clearing and settlement services in relation to financial products (including financial products traded on a Relevant Exchange) which may include:

- (a) securities;
- (b) derivatives;
- (c) interests in managed investment schemes (excluding investor directed portfolio services);
- (d) debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed to be issued by a government;
- (e) deposit and payment products; and
- (f) foreign exchange contracts.

The provision of settlement services may also involve FNZ Securities arranging dealings in deposit and payment products to facilitate settlement. FNZ Securities may also provide CHES sponsorship services to you.

When providing the above financial services to you we act in a principal capacity and not as a representative of any other person. When we execute a transaction (or arrange for a transaction to be executed) for you, FNZ Securities acts as your agent.

3.1 Clearing services for transactions in securities and interests in managed investment schemes executed on a Relevant Exchange

FNZ Securities may be engaged by a Broker to clear the transactions in securities and interests in managed investment schemes executed on or facilitated through a Relevant Exchange by the Broker. If you are a client of one of those Brokers and you effect a transaction in securities or interests in managed investment schemes on a Relevant Exchange through the Broker, FNZ Securities (as clearer) will carry the settlement obligations in respect of that transaction. FNZ Securities may also settle transactions not executed on a Relevant Exchange (e.g. primary market transactions or off market transactions). For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities and you will owe your settlement obligations in respect of that transaction directly to FNZ Securities and not to the Broker. If you are a client of one of those Brokers, you will be provided with the FNZ Securities Disclosure Statement which contains more information concerning the clearing services FNZ Securities provides and the terms of your agreement with FNZ Securities in respect of those services.

3.2 Execution and clearing services for transactions in securities and interests in managed investment schemes executed through a Relevant Exchange

FNZ Securities may also be engaged by an Intermediary to provide to clients of the Intermediary, execution and clearing services in securities and interests in managed investment schemes. This means that FNZ Securities will execute or facilitate the transaction on a Relevant Exchange for you and clear and settle those transactions. FNZ Securities may also settle for you transactions not executed on a Relevant Exchange (e.g. primary market transactions or off market transactions). As a client of an Intermediary, you may effect a transaction in securities or interests in managed investment schemes on a Relevant Exchange by providing instructions to the Intermediary. The Intermediary will then, as your agent, communicate your instructions to FNZ Securities who may then execute the transaction on a Relevant Exchange for you or facilitate settlement of the transaction. For this purpose, you will become FNZ Securities' client. In addition, FNZ Securities will also clear all transactions in securities or interests in managed investment schemes that FNZ Securities has executed on your behalf under this arrangement. Accordingly, FNZ Securities will carry the settlement obligations in respect of those transactions. For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities and you will owe your settlement obligations in respect of those transactions directly to FNZ Securities and not to the Intermediary.

3.3 Clearing services for transactions in Exchange Traded Options executed on ASX

FNZ Securities may also be engaged by a Broker to clear the transactions in ETOs executed on ASX by the Broker. If you are a client of one of those Brokers and you effect a transaction in an ETO on ASX through the Broker, FNZ Securities (as clearer) will carry the settlement obligations in respect of that transaction. For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities and you will owe your settlement obligations in respect of that transaction directly to FNZ Securities, not to the Broker. If you are a client of one of those Brokers, and wish to trade in ETOs on ASX through it, you will need to enter into the relevant FNZ Securities Derivatives Client Agreement. You may also need to enter into a Derivatives Client Agreement with the Broker, and the Broker may be required to give you a PDS in relation to the ETOs that you may trade. The PDS will contain information concerning ETOs to assist you in deciding whether those products are appropriate for your needs.

3.4 Execution and clearing services for transactions in Exchange Traded Options executed on ASX

FNZ Securities may also be engaged by an Intermediary to provide to clients of the Intermediary execution and clearing services in ETOs. This means that FNZ Securities will execute transaction in ETOs on ASX for you and clear and settle those transactions. If you are a client of an Intermediary and you wish to deal in ETOs on ASX, you may do so by communicating an order to deal in ETOs to the Intermediary. The Intermediary (as your agent) will communicate that order to FNZ Securities who will execute the transaction on ASX on your behalf. For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities. In addition, FNZ Securities will also clear all transactions in ETOs that are executed by FNZ Securities on your behalf. Accordingly, FNZ Securities will carry the settlement obligations in respect of those transactions. For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities and you will owe your settlement obligations in respect of those transactions directly to FNZ Securities and not to the Intermediary. If you are a client of an Intermediary and wish to trade in ETOs on ASX, you will need to enter into the relevant FNZ Securities Derivatives Client Agreement and be a wholesale client for the purposes of the Corporations Act.

3.5 Clearing services for transactions in ETOs "given up" to FNZ Securities on ASX

FNZ Securities may clear a transaction in ETOs executed on ASX by another participant of ASX Group if the transaction is "given up" to FNZ Securities. If FNZ Securities accepts the "give up" of such a transaction executed for you, FNZ Securities will carry the settlement obligations in respect of that transaction. For this purpose, you will become a client of FNZ Securities and you will owe your settlement obligations in respect of that transaction directly to us and not to the other participant. Before FNZ Securities can accept the "give up" to it of a transaction in ETOs executed for you, you will need to enter into the relevant FNZ Securities Derivatives Client Agreement.

4. Are there any associations or relationships that might influence the services provided?

Given the nature and limited range of the financial services FNZ Securities may provide you (e.g. execution, clearing and settlement services), FNZ Securities notes that:

- (a) in relation to those services FNZ Securities does not have any relationship or association with any product providers; and
- (b) it does not consider that any relationship it has could reasonably be expected to have any influence on the way it provides these services.

5. How can I give my instructions about your financial products and services?

You must specify to the Broker or your Intermediary (depending on the arrangement) exactly what you want us to do. All instructions in relation to financial products traded or otherwise dealt with on a Relevant Exchange should be given to the Broker or your Intermediary (where the Intermediary will place orders on your behalf with FNZ Securities). You must give instructions to the Broker or your Intermediary by telephone, facsimile, in writing or any other means that the Broker or your Intermediary agrees with you. You may not place orders directly with FNZ Securities unless you are given direct market access ("DMA") in which case you will enter your orders online, for transmission to FNZ Securities for execution. If you require the DMA Service, you should discuss this with the Intermediary.

6. What information do we maintain about you?

FNZ has established privacy standards and processes. We protect the personal information we collect about you by maintaining physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that meet or exceed applicable law. We only permit personnel associated with FNZ and its service providers to have access to your personal information. We require third parties that process personal information on our behalf to follow stringent standards of security and confidentiality. We will not disclose your personal information for marketing purposes to other entities unless you agree.

We may collect your personal information for a number of purposes, which may include:

- (a) administering your membership in the Client's products;

- (b) processing receipts and payments, producing statements and other mail related services; and
- (c) meeting necessary legal and regulatory requirements.

You can access most of your personal information by calling us on +61 2 9237 6670. If for some reason we are unable to provide you with access to any requested information, then we will inform you of the reason why.

7. How are our staff paid?

FNZ staff receive a fixed salary. Some employees have the opportunity to earn incentives or performance-based bonuses. These incentives/bonuses are based on achieving service standards and business performance targets while meeting compliance requirements. It is not possible to determine at any given time whether a staff member will receive the bonus referred to above or to quantify them. The bonuses are not generally attributable to any particular product or service.

8. How is FNZ paid for the services that it provides?

Brokerage, commission, fees or a combination will apply depending on the services and products you choose.

To the extent that a PDS is required for a transaction involving a particular financial product, the PDS for the financial product will disclose details of commissions, fees or other benefits received by FNZ Securities or its related companies in respect of the transaction in respect of that financial product. Fees for other services FNZ Securities provides are listed below. These fees may be paid to either FNZ Securities or to any of its related companies or another intermediary.

You do not pay commissions to FNZ Securities. The commissions, which will be recorded on transaction confirmations, are commissions payable by you to the Intermediary or Broker (as the case may be). FNZ Securities will collect these amounts from you and remit them to the Intermediary or Broker (as the case may be). FNZ Securities will charge a fee to the Intermediary or Broker (as the case may be) for providing these services to you. This fee depends on the value and volume of trading, which we do through the Intermediary or Broker. You may request particulars of the remuneration, provided the request is made within a reasonable time after you receive this FSG and before we provide the services to you.

9. What should I do if I have a complaint?

If you have a complaint related to FNZ Securities' services (as opposed to the with the services provided by the Broker or your Intermediary), the first step is to contact us directly on +61 2 9237 6670. In the first instance, the FNZ Securities Complaints Officer will try to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly. Where your complaint relates to FNZ Securities' services specifically we will ensure all enquiries and complaints are considered and dealt with in accordance with our Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) scheme. If, however, you are not satisfied with the outcome after discussing the complaint with us, you may contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is an independent external dispute resolution body specialising in resolving disputes in the financial services industry. The contact details for AFCA are:

10. What compensation arrangements do we have in place?

Our compensation arrangements comply with the legal requirements set out in Section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and ASIC Regulatory Guide 126.

The FNZ Group maintains professional indemnity insurance coverage in relation to the financial services that FNZ is authorised to provide. We may rely on the wider FNZ Group's professional indemnity insurances for claims for compensation we receive. Where we are liable to make a compensation payment ourselves, we will generally do so out of existing cash-flow and other financial resources.

for clients of the Intermediary

TERMS OF YOUR AGREEMENT WITH
FNZ CUSTODIANS (AUSTRALIA) PTY LTD
ABN 88 624 689 694 AFSL No 507452 (trading as and hereafter referred to as "FNZ Securities")
Issued 20 March 2023
Version 3.3

1. Your agreement with FNZ Securities

FNZ Securities is admitted as a Trading Participant of one or more Relevant Exchanges. FNZ Securities is also admitted as a Clearing Participant in accordance with the operating rules of ASX Clear Pty Limited ABN 48 001 314 503 (ASX Clear), a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX Limited ABN 98 008 624 691 (ASX).

By placing an Order with the Intermediary (as Your agent) to purchase or sell Traded Products by means of a Transaction, You accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions set out below in this document including the Schedules (Terms and Conditions).

If You wish to buy or sell or otherwise deal in Traded Products on a Relevant Exchange, the Intermediary will (as Your agent) communicate Your Order to FNZ Securities. FNZ Securities will, subject to these Terms and Conditions, execute that Order on Your behalf and will clear and settle the Transactions that result from the execution of Your Orders. Accordingly, FNZ Securities will carry the obligations to complete the sale or purchase, together with all the obligations which are ancillary to the completion (Settlement Obligations). FNZ Securities must also settle such Transactions as principal with ASX Clear or the relevant counterparty even though the Transaction was entered into on Your behalf. Accordingly, Your clearing and settlement obligations under the sale or purchase contract are owed directly to FNZ Securities and not to the Intermediary.

In the event that You fail to complete a contract in accordance with the ASX Clear Rules or fail to pay the amounts due in respect of a Transaction, FNZ Securities has direct rights against You, including rights of sale under the Exchange Rules and ASX Clear Rules and those described in these Terms and Conditions.

2. Conduct of Business

You acknowledge and agree:

- a. to comply with these Terms and Conditions, all applicable laws, the Exchange Rules, ASX Clear Rules and ASX Settlement Rules and the directions, decisions and requirements of each Relevant Exchange and the customs and usages of the Market; and
- b. that all Transactions are subject to the Exchange Rules, ASX Clear Rules, the directions, decisions and requirements of a Relevant Exchange and the customs and usages of the Market, the correction of errors and omissions and, if the sale or purchase is in relation to Traded Products approved for settlement by ASX Settlement, the ASX Settlement Rules.

3. Orders and instructions

You agree that:

- a. if You wish to place any Order, You must do so with the Intermediary (such communications are to be given in the form and manner agreed with the Intermediary from time to time), and You authorise the Intermediary, as Your agent (and not as the agent of FNZ Securities), to communicate Your Order and other instructions or information to FNZ Securities;
- b. FNZ Securities may provide communications to You through the Intermediary and not directly to You.

FNZ Securities will not act on any Orders or other instructions or information communicated directly to it by You (and not the Intermediary). You may only terminate the Intermediary's authority to act on Your behalf by terminating this agreement.

As a Participant of one or more Relevant Exchanges, subject to Your instructions, FNZ Securities is required to handle and execute Orders in accordance with the ASIC Market Integrity Rules. A copy of the FNZ Securities Best Execution Arrangements as at the date of these Terms and Conditions is attached as Schedule 4. FNZ Securities may from time to time amend its Best Execution Arrangement and make such amendments available on its website or through the Intermediary, or otherwise notify You of the amended Best Execution Arrangements. FNZ Securities will also act in accordance with the Client Order Priority and Trade Allocation Procedures, which may be updated from time to time and are available on the FNZ Securities website at

<https://www.fnz.com/fnzsecurities/AUSdisclosures>

FNZ Securities may at any time, in its absolute discretion, refuse to accept any Order from, or execute Orders for You. For example, FNZ Securities may refuse to accept Your Order if it would require FNZ Securities to act otherwise than in accordance with its Best Execution Arrangement.

Subject to any instructions from You, FNZ Securities will generally execute Orders in the sequence in which they are received.

However, You acknowledge and agree that:

- a. Your Order may be automatically crossed against other orders before reaching the Market;
- b. FNZ Securities may not be aware of principal orders that are being (or may be) executed, and that direct market access arrangements and program trading may make it impossible to prevent principal orders from being executed at the same time as (or before) Your Order. Accordingly, You agree that FNZ Securities may execute principal orders where Your Order on the same terms is outstanding and that these Terms and Conditions constitute disclosure as required by the Market Integrity Rules. Unless You notify FNZ Securities to the contrary, You will be taken to have consented to FNZ Securities (and/or any of its related bodies corporate) trading as Principal with You and agree to pay such commission (if any) on such transactions, each time You place an order with FNZ Securities through the Intermediary;
- c. You will be charged the normal rate of commission by the Intermediary for Orders which are crossed with FNZ Securities' principal orders unless, if You are a retail client (as defined in the Corporations Act) and it is not permitted under the Corporations Act or the Market Integrity Rules;
- d. You do not pay commissions to FNZ Securities. The commissions, which will be recorded on transaction confirmations, are commissions payable by You to the Intermediary. FNZ Securities will collect these amounts from You and remit them to the Intermediary. FNZ Securities will charge a fee to the Intermediary for providing these services to You;
- e. an Order once accepted by FNZ Securities may not be transacted and an Order to transact an AQUA Product through the ASX Managed Fund Settlement Service is subject to acceptance by the issuer of the product and an application for issue or redemption of a product may be rejected; and
- f. an Order to transact in an AQUA Product is not traded on a Relevant Exchange and comprises an application by You to the relevant product issuer. You acknowledge and agree that:
 - i. FNZ Securities does not control and cannot procure the issue or redemption of AQUA Products or the processing of requests for issue or redemption of, or switch between, AQUA Products;
 - ii. FNZ Securities has no liability to You or the Intermediary with respect to any action or failure to take action by an issuer or other Settlement Participant in connection with a request for issue, redemption or switch of AQUA Products including (without limitation) an issuer's failure to issue or redeem AQUA Products or make available redemption monies or to deliver AQUA Products.

4. Orders relating to sales

You agree that whenever You place a sale Order with the Intermediary, You must notify the Intermediary whether or not Your sale Order is a covered short sale – i.e. a sale where You have, at the time You place the sale Order with the Intermediary, a legally binding commitment from a securities lender to lend the securities to You under a Securities Lending Arrangement.

Where Your sale relates to a covered short sale, You must also inform the Intermediary at the time of placing the sale Order:

- a. the number of Traded Products to be sold that are to be delivered under the Securities Lending Arrangement;
- b. a description of the Traded Products (e.g. fully paid ordinary shares); and
- c. the name of the entity that issued the Traded Products (e.g. BHP Billiton Limited).

You acknowledge that FNZ Securities will not be permitted to execute a sale Order for You unless You have informed the Intermediary whether or not the sale Order relates to a covered short sale. You agree that, each time You place a sale Order with the Intermediary and notify the Intermediary that the sale Order relates to a covered short sale, You will be taken to have warranted and represented to FNZ Securities and the Intermediary that the sale will meet the requirements and conditions of the Corporations Act, Corporations Regulations and ASIC Class Orders (if any) (as amended from time to time) relating to covered short sales, (including without limitation that You have obtained a legally binding commitment from a securities lender to lend the relevant securities to You under a Securities Lending Arrangement).

7. The Intermediary's use of a DMA Service

FNZ Securities may provide a direct market access service (DMA Service) to the Intermediary under which the Intermediary may place Your Orders directly into the Trading Platform through an electronic automated client order process. You acknowledge that if FNZ Securities provides a DMA Service to the Intermediary:

- a. There may be delays in the processing, execution, amendment or cancellation of an Order entered through the DMA Service and:
 - i. an Order may be wholly or partly filled before an instruction for its amendment or cancellation is processed; and
 - ii. You remain liable to settle the original Order, until any relevant amendment or cancellation is effected;
- b. The execution of an Order placed through the DMA Service may be delayed by filters or other electronic features of the electronic system;
- c. except to the extent required by law, FNZ Securities is not responsible for the processing, execution or cancellation of any Orders submitted through the DMA Service, regardless of who enters such Orders and regardless of whether or not there is an error in the Order entry or for any delays in relation to the same;
- d. except to the extent required by law, FNZ Securities makes no representations or warranties express or implied with respect to the DMA Service;
- e. there are significant risks in trading through a DMA Service because it is serviced by means of computer and telecommunications systems, even where generally accepted industry standards and practices are followed, including that Your data may not be protected, and there are risks that other users of the DMA Service, institutions or intermediaries may be able to see Your Orders and other communications relating to trading and execution without Your (or FNZ Securities') consent and that third parties (including persons on private networks) will have the ability to attach to Your network; and
- f. FNZ Securities may terminate the Intermediary's participation in the DMA Service at any time without notice to You.

8. Client's use of a DMA Service

FNZ Securities may provide a DMA Service to You under which You may place Your Orders directly into the Trading Platform through an electronic automated client order process. You acknowledge that if FNZ Securities provides the DMA Service to You, the terms in Schedule 3 will apply.

9. FNZ Securities' right to require the Intermediary to refuse to accept Orders

You acknowledge that FNZ Securities may at any time in its absolute discretion direct the Intermediary to:

- a. refuse to accept You as a client or not to accept Orders from You; or
- b. refuse to accept a particular Order from You.

10. Purchases and Sales

You must ensure that payment in full is received by FNZ Securities (and not the Intermediary) before the Settlement Date and Time. FNZ Securities will not accept payment in cash.

In accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act), and the regulations made under the Corporations Act, pending settlement by You, these Terms and Conditions and the relevant Confirmation (if any) constitutes notice to You that FNZ Securities may deposit the Traded Products purchased for You in a particular transaction as security for a loan if FNZ Securities has received and paid for such Traded Products on Your behalf.

You must deliver to FNZ Securities (and not the Intermediary) all documents and security holder information (including the holder identification number or personal identification number and, if applicable, holder reference number) (Security Holder Information) no later than two business days before the Settlement Date and Time.

All documentation and Security Holder Information must be sent to:

FNZ Custodians (Australia) Pty Ltd
Level 1, 99 Elizabeth Street
Sydney NSW 2000

If You have entered into a Sponsorship Agreement with FNZ Securities, You will be taken to have satisfied this obligation if You ensure that sufficient Traded Products are held in Your Sponsored Holding with FNZ Securities, those Traded Products are unencumbered and, if the consent of any third party is required before FNZ Securities may withdraw those Traded Products, that consent has been obtained and communicated to FNZ Securities. You irrevocably authorise FNZ Securities to apply any Traded Products held in Your Participant Sponsored Holding to satisfy Your Settlement Obligations arising from any Transaction executed by FNZ Securities on Your behalf.

Credits in respect of sales are not available until the latest of:

- a. the Settlement Date and Time;
- b. when all documents and Security Holder Information have been received by FNZ Securities in deliverable form; and
- c. all amounts due and payable by You to FNZ Securities or the Intermediary have been paid.

Unless FNZ Securities has agreed alternative arrangements with You, FNZ Securities will pay all sale proceeds directly to You. To the extent that any such alternative arrangements are agreed, You acknowledge and agree that FNZ Securities will have no liability for sale proceeds not being received by You other than to the extent that the liability resulted from FNZ Securities' negligence, wilful default or fraud.

11. No Advice

You acknowledge that FNZ Securities does not provide financial product advice or owe any fiduciary duty to You, nor does it accept responsibility for any financial product advice given to You by the Intermediary. You must not represent to any person that FNZ Securities has given any financial product advice to You.

12. Settlement Date and Time

The "Settlement Date and Time" for sales or purchases is the date and time that is specified on the front of the relevant Confirmation. If no date and time are specified or no Confirmation is required to be given, the Settlement Date and Time is 9.00am (Sydney time) on the second Business Day after the execution of the Transaction. The Intermediary has no authority to extend the Settlement Date and Time.

13. Warranties by the client

You represent and warrant that before placing any Order with the Intermediary:

- a. You will be in a position to pay for any Traded Products purchased and have a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest any Traded Products sold in the buyer, to enable settlement at the Settlement Date and Time; and

14. Settlement using BPAY facility

If You would like to make payment from Your cheque or savings account by BPAY, please make arrangements with Your participating financial institution. Please quote the Biller Code and Your BPAY reference number (see the front page of the relevant Confirmation (if any)).

15. Confirmations

You will be given confirmations as required by the Corporations Act and the Market Integrity Rules (Confirmation).

You authorise FNZ Securities (on its own behalf and on behalf of the Intermediary) to give Confirmations to You electronically to the email address notified to FNZ Securities by the Intermediary on Your behalf from time to time for this purpose. FNZ Securities may not provide You with paper copies of Confirmations.

If requested by You, FNZ Securities will, if required under the Market Integrity Rules, give You a statement of all the individual prices of the relevant transactions which are accumulated and averaged in a Confirmation. If You are a Wholesale Client for the purposes of the Market Integrity Rules, FNZ Securities may elect not to give any Confirmations to You in relation to Transactions executed for You. - levy a default charge on the amount from time to time outstanding at a rate of up to 15.0% per annum;
- sell out (or procure the sell out of) any Traded Products purchased (and You are fully responsible for any loss in connection with such sale) and apply the proceeds in reduction of Your liability to FNZ Securities and to recover FNZ Securities' costs in so acting;
- buy in (or procure the buy in of) any Traded Products sold (and You are fully responsible for any loss in connection with such purchase) and recover FNZ Securities' costs in so acting;
- sell out (or procure the sell out of) any Traded Products otherwise held on Your behalf (and You are fully responsible for any loss in connection with such sale) and apply the proceeds in reduction of Your liability to FNZ Securities and to recover FNZ Securities' costs in so acting;

- and You authorise FNZ Securities and each of its directors and employees as Your attorney to give instructions on Your behalf in respect of Your Traded Product holdings sponsored by FNZ Securities (or a related body corporate or affiliate of FNZ Securities) in CHESS, or held by a related body corporate or affiliate of either of FNZ Securities or the Intermediary in nominee holdings, and in respect of call deposit facilities or cash management trust accounts on which either FNZ Securities or the Intermediary is authorised to give instructions, to enable FNZ Securities to realise those Traded Products or funds and apply the proceeds in reduction of Your liability to FNZ Securities and to recover FNZ Securities' costs in so acting.

If You fail to settle, FNZ Securities may make arrangements on Your behalf to ensure that Your Settlement Obligations are performed (including by buying-in or borrowing the relevant Traded Products).

If You have not met Your settlement obligations owed to FNZ Securities in respect of a Transaction executed for You by FNZ Securities by the date which is 4 Business Days after the Settlement Date and Time, it is FNZ Securities' policy (and FNZ Securities may be obliged under the ASX Settlement Rules), without any notice to You (but without limiting FNZ Securities' discretion to take any actions):

- in the case of a purchase, to execute a Transaction to close out the failed purchase (by selling the relevant Traded Products); or
- in the case of a sale, to execute a Transaction to close out the failed sale (by buying-in the relevant Traded Products), and recover any resulting loss from You.

You must pay or reimburse FNZ Securities any such administration fees and default charges (together with any GST payable on those amounts) immediately upon demand or at FNZ Securities' option it may deduct such administration fees and default charges (and any GST) from any sale proceeds or other amounts otherwise payable to You.

The manner in which FNZ Securities may exercise or not exercise, or the timing of or any delay in any exercise by FNZ Securities of, any right of FNZ Securities under this clause is not to be taken to be financial product advice by FNZ Securities to You, and You must not represent to any person that it is financial product advice by FNZ Securities.

FNZ Securities will not be liable to You for any failure by FNZ Securities to exercise (or any delay in the exercise by FNZ Securities of) any right FNZ Securities may have against You, or any loss incurred by You as a result of FNZ Securities not exercising any of its rights against You immediately, or at all, following any failure by You to comply with Your obligations.

The rights described in this clause 16 are in addition to any rights that are conferred to FNZ Securities under the Exchange Rules and the ASX Clear Rules.

17. Cancellations

Each Relevant Exchange has the power under the Exchange Rules to cancel or amend Transactions or Crossings. You authorise FNZ Securities to, and agree that FNZ Securities may, without Your consent, cancel or amend (or request or agree to the cancellation or amendment of) any Transactions or Crossing relating to the sale or purchase (as the case may be) of Traded Products:

- if requested to do so by the Intermediary in the circumstances contemplated by the Market Integrity Rules (as if the Intermediary were a Trading Participant that executed that Order to which the Transaction or Crossing relates);
- if a Relevant Exchange or a participant of the Relevant Exchange exercises its power under the Exchange Rules to cancel or amend (or require the cancellation or amendment of) the Transaction or Crossing; or
- in the event of an Error or otherwise in the circumstances contemplated in the Exchange Rules.

Your obligations referred to in clause 10 of these Terms and Conditions, and FNZ Securities' obligations in relation to the settlement of a Transaction, will no longer apply in respect of a cancelled transaction from the time it is cancelled or, in the case of an amended Transaction, apply as amended.

18. Interest on FNZ Securities' trust account

You acknowledge that FNZ Securities will retain the interest (if any) earned on monies held in its trust account from time to time.

19. Assignment to the Intermediary of debts owed by You to FNZ Securities

If You have not paid any debt to FNZ Securities, You acknowledge that FNZ Securities may (by notice to You and the Intermediary) assign that debt to the Intermediary and the assigned debt will become an obligation of Yours owed to the Intermediary. In the event of such an assignment, the Intermediary (and each of its directors and employees) will have the rights and powers (and may do all the things) set out in clause 16 as if a reference to FNZ Securities were a reference to the Intermediary.

20. Instructions by fax or e-mail

This is because on 26 October 2020, Cboe became a member of the SEGC, which operates the National Guarantee Fund (NGF). When do the NGF Arrangements apply? From 26 October 2020, the National Guarantee Fund (NGF) may apply in the circumstances set out in Division 4 of Part 7.5 of the Corporations Act 2001 and Corporations Regulations 2001. Transitional arrangements apply and these are set out on the SEGC's website at www.segc.com.au. For further information on the National Guarantee Fund and what it covers, please contact SEGC, see the SEGC website and refer to Division 4 of Part 7.5 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth). When do the Division 3 Compensation Arrangements apply? Where a retail investor suffers a loss in respect of conduct, a transaction or insolvency that occurred before 26 October 2020, that loss may be covered by the Division 3 compensation arrangements. Section 11 of the Cboe Operating Rules outlines the Division 3 compensation arrangements, including the cessation of the arrangements on 25 October 2027 and the requirement, while the arrangements are in place, to make a claim no later than six months after becoming aware of the loss to which the claim relates. Section 11 also outlines that the losses covered by Division 3 are those resulting from defalcation or fraudulent misuse of your money, property or authority by a Cboe participant."

SCHEDULE 4

FNZ SECURITIES BEST EXECUTION ARRANGEMENTS

1. Introduction

1.1 FNZ Custodians (Australia) Pty Ltd (FNZ Securities) is required to take reasonable steps to obtain the best outcome (Best Execution) for clients in accordance with Part 3.8 of the ASIC Market Integrity Rules when executing orders in equity market products and CGS Depository Interests. Equity market products include shares, managed investment schemes, the right to acquire by way of issue shares and managed investment schemes and CHESS depository interests (CDIs).

1.2 This statement sets out FNZ Securities' approach to providing Best Execution including, the differences for retail and wholesale clients, our execution methods and how we manage client instructions.

1.3 Whilst FNZ Securities has established procedures to take reasonable steps to obtain Best Execution for clients, FNZ Securities does not guarantee that it will achieve Best Execution for every order executed.

2. Best Execution arrangements for retail clients

FNZ Securities' Best Execution Arrangements for retail clients is to obtain Best Total Consideration for the executed order(s). Best Total Consideration means the best displayed price on all the order books (see section 5) plus transaction costs for a purchase and minus transaction costs for a sale. Transaction costs means costs related to the execution, clearing and settlement of a transaction and include costs of the market provider for these services.

3. Best Execution arrangements for wholesale clients

FNZ Securities will take into account (if directed by a wholesale client) outcomes relevant to a wholesale client when a wholesale client provides instructions to execute an order. These include, but are not limited to, price, execution costs, speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature or any consideration relevant to the execution of the order (Relevant Outcomes). Unless otherwise directed, FNZ Securities' Best Execution Arrangement will be to achieve Best Total Consideration unless directed otherwise by the wholesale client.

4. Specific Instructions that are inconsistent with Best Execution

4.1 Whenever FNZ Securities receives a specific instruction from or on behalf of a client, FNZ Securities will take reasonable steps to execute the order in accordance with the specific instruction. This may include instructions about the execution venue, execution time, likelihood of execution and other matters. Complying with such an instruction may prevent FNZ Securities from obtaining Best Execution for that order. Specific instructions must be clear and unambiguous and in writing. FNZ Securities reserves the right to decline an order which includes instructions which are not consistent with obtaining Best Execution and trading rules may however prevent FNZ Securities from following the client's instructions or achieving Best Execution.

4.2 A wholesale client may provide a standing instruction to FNZ Securities including that the FNZ Securities Best Execution Arrangement does not apply to its orders. A standing instruction applies only for a 12-month period and FNZ Securities will periodically review whether it can continue to comply with the standing instruction.

5. Order handling and execution venues

5.1 Orders may be executed via FNZ Securities' DMA facility or manually by FNZ Securities' DTRs.

5.2 As a participant of both the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and Cboe Australia (Cboe), FNZ Securities will consider the merits of both ASX and Cboe order book(s) and execute an order on the order book(s) that offers the best outcome for the client, unless directed by client to execute on a particular venue. Order books include:

- ASX TradeMatch
- ASX CentrePoint and
- Cboe market (including Cboe Hidden)

As more licensed markets emerge or order books become available, FNZ Securities will also consider the merits of placing orders on these trading venues. At present FNZ Securities does not operate internal order books (i.e. internally crossing or liquidity pools).

5.3 In instances where an order cannot be satisfied on an order book (i.e. symbol not available, no available quote/market), the execution of such orders will be routed to the primary order book that FNZ Securities considers will achieve Best Execution.

5.4 FNZ Securities may employ its smart order router (SOR) to direct orders to venues in a specific order and seek Best Execution. However, the execution achieved will depend upon the order in which the venues are visited, whether they are lit or dark, the latency involved in reaching these venues and the available volume in each of the venues. For wholesale clients FNZ Securities will accept an instruction not to use the SOR for an order.

5.5 FNZ Securities may, without notice, cease to send orders to a particular order book temporarily or indefinitely if an order book becomes unavailable. Applying reasonable discretion, FNZ Securities may also cancel unexecuted or partially executed orders that are resting in an order book that is unavailable for trading and replace them on an available order book. In the event of a technical issue with the SOR, systems or market connections FNZ Securities will, using reasonable discretion, route orders to the remaining available order books. If FNZ Securities determines that Best Execution will be best achieved by placing the Order with another broker for execution, FNZ Securities will either satisfy itself that the other broker has arrangements in place to enable us to comply with our Best Execution obligations.

5.6 Different markets may have different operating hours and may not run an opening or closing auction or similar mechanisms. Orders received by FNZ Securities to execute at "Market on Open" or "Market on Close" will be treated as having reference to ASX opening and closing auction prices until and unless other venues offer similar or equivalent market open and close pricing mechanisms which FNZ Securities will consider in obtaining Best Execution.

5.7 FNZ Securities will not re-transmit an Order it has already placed on one order book if a better price subsequently becomes available on another order book.

5.8 FNZ Securities may elect to send all the volume of an Order to only one order book that offers the best displayed price in situations where another order book also offers the best displayed price, but only for an insignificant volume.

6. Demonstration of Compliance

Upon receipt of a reasonable request by a client (within 5 Business Days), FNZ Securities will make reasonable efforts to demonstrate to the client that its Order was executed in accordance with the Best Execution Arrangements.

7. Notification of Changes

Best execution arrangements may change from time to time. Any material changes to this statement will be notified to you. The latest Best Execution Arrangements are available on the FNZ Securities website at <https://www.fnz.com/fnzsecurities/AUSdisclosures>

2. What is the purpose of the Sponsorship Terms?

The Sponsorship Terms appoint us as your "Controlling Participant" on CHESS. CHESS is an electronic system that manages the settlement process by facilitating the exchange of money and shares at the same time. CHESS also administers a form of electronic registration of shareholdings so instead of Holding certificates to show that you own Financial Products, under CHESS you have Financial Products registered in your name to show that you own them. CHESS is operated by ASX Settlement Pty Ltd ABN 49 008 504 532 ("ASX Settlement") under the ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

FNZ Securities is admitted as a General Settlement Participant of ASX Settlement, which means that it is able to control Financial Products on CHESS for you. In other words, FNZ Securities "sponsors" your Financial Products on CHESS.

3. Explanation of the Sponsorship Terms

These CHESS Sponsorship Terms contain various provisions in relation to the sponsorship of your Financial Products, including:

- (a) your appointment of FNZ Securities to act as your agent on CHESS and the obligations that arise for FNZ Securities as a result of our appointment;
- (b) the acknowledgments that you make in respect of our appointment as your Controlling Participant, including that these terms have been properly explained to you;
- (c) the effect of Financial Products being lodged as security in relation to Derivatives Products;
- (d) the information that you must provide to FNZ Securities;
- (e) what will happen if FNZ Securities is suspended from participation in CHESS;
- (f) the procedures that are to be followed if you have a complaint against FNZ Securities;
- (g) what will happen if FNZ no longer wishes to sponsor you;
- (h) how these CHESS Sponsorship Terms may be terminated; and

 - 2.5 If FNZ Securities claims that the Client has not paid FNZ Securities an amount lawfully owed to FNZ Securities, FNZ Securities can refuse to comply with the Client's withdrawal instructions (but only to the extent necessary to retain in the Client's Holding sponsored under these Sponsorship Terms Financial Products with a value equal to 120% of the current market value of the amount claimed).
 - 2.6 Subject to clauses 2.4 and 2.5, FNZ Securities will initiate any Transfer, Conversion or other action necessary to give effect to withdrawal instructions within the Scheduled Time.

 - (d) if FNZ Securities is not a Market Participant of an Approved Market Operator, neither the Approved Market Operator, nor a Related Party of the Approved Market Operator, has any responsibility for regulating the relationship between the Client and FNZ Securities, other than in relation to the rules relating to sponsorship agreements.

- 8.4 If FNZ Securities breaches these Sponsorship Terms, the Client may refer that breach to any regulatory authority, including ASX Settlement.

- 9.5 The Client will be taken to have consented to the events referred to in clause 9.4 by the doing of any act which is consistent with the novation of these Sponsorship Terms to the new Controlling Participant (for example by giving an instruction to the new Controlling Participant), on or after the Effective Date, and such consent will be taken to be given as of the Effective Date.

- 9.7 Nothing in clauses 9.1 to 9.6 will prevent the completion of CHESS transactions by the existing Controlling Participant where the obligation to complete those transactions arises before the Effective Date and these Sponsorship Terms will continue to apply to the completion of those transactions, notwithstanding the novation of these Sponsorship Terms to the new Controlling Participant under clauses 9.1 to 9.6.

1. INSTRUCTIONS

1.1 ASX Derivative Products

The Client may from time to time instruct the Intermediary to deal in the following kinds of derivatives which are traded on ASX:

- (a) Options Market Contracts (sometimes referred to as Exchange Traded Options); and
- (b) other kinds of derivatives traded on ASX, but not including Futures Market Contracts (ASX Derivative Products). By placing an Order with the Intermediary (as the Client's agent) in ASX Derivatives Products, the Client accepts and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions set out in this agreement

1.2 Authorisation of additional ASX Derivative Products

If the Client gives instructions to the Intermediary to deal in an ASX Derivative Product in which the Intermediary is not authorised to deal under this clause, those instructions are taken to vary this agreement to authorise the Intermediary to deal in that ASX Derivative Product under this clause.

1.3 Orders and instructions

If the Client places an Order with the Intermediary, the Intermediary, as the Client's agent (and not as the agent of FNZ Securities), will communicate the Client's Order to FNZ Securities and other instructions or information to FNZ Securities as appropriate. FNZ Securities will not act on any Orders or other instructions or information communicated directly to it by the Client (and not through the Intermediary). The Client may only terminate the Intermediary's authority to act on the Client's behalf by terminating this agreement. A reference in this agreement to an Order or instruction from the Client is a reference to an Order or instruction from the Intermediary as the Client's agent.

- (a) the Client's Order may be automatically crossed against other orders before reaching the market;
- (b) the Client will be charged the normal rate of commission by the Intermediary for Orders which are crossed with FNZ Securities' principal orders; and
- (c) FNZ Securities may not be aware of principal orders that are being (or may be) executed, and that direct market access arrangements and program trading may make it impossible to prevent principal orders from being executed at the same time as (or before) the Client's Order. Accordingly, the Client agrees that FNZ Securities may execute principal orders where the Client's Order on the same terms is outstanding and that this agreement constitutes disclosure as required by ASIC Market Integrity Rule 5.1.8.

1.4 Right to refuse to deal

The Client acknowledges that:

- (a) [ASX Minimum Term 4, ASIC Minimum Term 3.1.7(1)(d)(vi) and ASX Clear Minimum Term 4] FNZ Securities may at any time refuse to deal in, or may limit dealings in, ASX Derivative Products for the Client. FNZ Securities will notify the Client of any refusal or limitation as soon as practicable. FNZ Securities is not required to act in accordance with the Client's instructions, where to do so would constitute a breach of the ASX Clear Rules, the ASX Operating Rules or the Corporations Act; and
- (b) unless the Client has authorised FNZ Securities to accept and act without any inquiry upon instructions provided (including Orders placed) by fax or email which appear to FNZ Securities to have been given by or for the Client, and has indemnified FNZ Securities in respect of any losses or expenses that FNZ Securities may suffer or incur as a result of so acting, FNZ Securities will refuse to accept instructions it receives by fax or email in respect of the Client.

 - (ii) the Client remains liable to settle the original Order, until any relevant amendment or cancellation is effected;
- (b) the execution of an Order placed through the DMA Service may be delayed by filters or other electronic features of the electronic system;
- (c) except to the extent required by law, FNZ Securities is not responsible for the processing, execution or cancellation of any Orders submitted through the DMA Service, regardless of who enters such Orders and regardless of whether or not there is an error in the Order entry or for any delays in relation to the same;
- (d) except to the extent required by law, FNZ Securities makes no representations or warranties express or implied with respect to the DMA Service;
- (e) there are significant risks in trading through a DMA Service because it is serviced by means of computer and telecommunications systems, even where generally accepted industry standards and practices are followed, including that the Client's data may not be protected, and there are risks that other users of the DMA Service, institutions or brokers may be able to see the Client's Orders and other communications relating to trading and execution without the Client's (or FNZ Securities') consent and that third parties (including persons on private networks) will have the ability to attach to the Client's network; and

6. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND WARRANTIES

6.1 Change of Participant [ASX Clear Minimum Term 16]

If the Client receives a Participant Change Notice from FNZ Securities and the Participant Change Notice was received at least 20 Business Days prior to the date proposed in the Participant Change Notice for the change of Participant, the Client is under no obligation to agree to the change of Participant, and may choose to do any of the things set out below.

The Client may choose to terminate this agreement in accordance with clause 10.1 or by giving instruction to FNZ Securities, indicating that the Client wishes to transfer its Derivatives Contracts to another Participant.

If the Client does not take any action to terminate this agreement and does not give any other instructions to FNZ Securities which would indicate that the Client does not agree to the change of Participant then, on the Effective Date, this agreement will have been taken to be novated to the new Participant and will be binding on all parties as if on the Effective Date:

- (a) the new Participant is a party to this agreement in substitution for FNZ Securities;
- (b) any rights of FNZ Securities are transferred to the new Participant; and
- (c) FNZ Securities is released by the Client from any obligations arising on or after the Effective Date, and the Client will also be taken to have consented to and authorised;

The novation cannot take effect until the Client has received a notice from the new Participant confirming that the new Participant consents to acting as the Participant for the Client. The Effective Date may as a result be later than the date set out in the Participant Change Notice.

The Client will be taken to have consented to the events referred to above by the doing of any act which is consistent with the novation of this agreement to the new Participant (for example by giving an instruction to the new Participant), on or after the Effective Date, and such consent will be taken to be given as of the Effective Date.

This agreement continues for the benefit of FNZ Securities in respect of any rights and obligations accruing before the Effective Date and, to the extent that any law or provision of any agreement makes the novation not binding or effective on the Effective Date, then this agreement will continue for the benefit of FNZ Securities until such time as the novation is effective, and the existing Participant will hold the benefit of this agreement on trust for the new Participant.

Nothing in this clause 6.1 will prevent the completion of Derivatives Transactions or Derivatives Contracts by FNZ Securities where the obligation to complete those transactions or contracts arises before the Effective Date and this agreement will continue to apply to the completion of those contracts, notwithstanding the novation of this agreement to the new Participant under this clause 6.1.

18.9 Supervening legislation

Any present or future legislation which operates to vary the obligations of the Client in connection with this agreement, FNZ Securities Cover with the result that FNZ Securities' rights, powers or remedies are adversely affected (including, by way of delay or postponement) is excluded except to the extent that its exclusion is prohibited or rendered ineffective by law.

18.10 No withholding

All payments to be made to FNZ Securities must be made without deduction or withholding. If the Client is obliged by law to deduct or withhold any amount from any payment to be made under this agreement the Client will concurrently pay to FNZ Securities such additional amount as will result in FNZ Securities receiving the full amount which would have been received if the deduction or withholding had not been made.

18.11 Currency

All payments under this agreement are to be made in Australian dollars, except as FNZ Securities otherwise agrees. If for any reason (including any judgment or order) any amount payable by the Client under this agreement is received or recovered by FNZ Securities in another currency which, upon conversion of the other currency into Australian dollars, is less than the amount which would have been received by FNZ Securities if paid in Australian dollars, then the Client must as an independent obligation indemnify FNZ Securities on demand against the deficiency.

18.12 Recovery of GST

If GST has application to any Supply made under or in connection with this agreement, FNZ Securities may in addition to any amount or consideration payable to it under this agreement, recover from the Client an additional amount on account of GST, such amount to be calculated by multiplying the amount or consideration payable by the Client to it at the prevailing GST rate.

Any additional amount on account of GST recoverable from the Client under this clause shall be calculated without any deduction or set-off of any other amount and is payable by the Client upon demand of FNZ Securities, whether such demand is by invoice or otherwise. To the extent that any party to the Terms (Supplier), is or becomes liable to pay GST in connection with any Supply made under this agreement:

- the Supplier may add an amount in respect of that GST to the agreed price of the supply;
- any party paying consideration for the Supply will pay the agreed price plus the amount in respect of GST; and
- where required by the GST Law, the Supplier will issue a tax invoice which enables the person receiving the invoice, if permitted by the GST Law, to claim an input tax credit or refund of GST.
