

Little Sharks, Big Sharks

1 Turn to the front of the book. Who is the author of this book? What does an author do?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.K.6

2 Read about velvet belly lanternsharks on pages 6–7. What is amazing about this type of shark?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.K.1, RI.1.1

3 Turn to pages 8–9. Name two things that a pyjama shark eats.

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.K.1, RI.1.1

4 Look at the pages about the tasseled wobbegong (pages 12–13). What can you see in the main picture? What is the shark doing? Why is it doing this?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.K.7

5 Find the glossary. Which of the words in the glossary did you already know? Which words are new to you?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.1.5

Answers

- 1 Ruth A. Musgrave; They write books (also stories, poems, articles, etc.).
- 2 It glows in the dark.
- 3 smaller fish and worms
- 4 The shark is hiding in the sand; it is waiting to catch a fish.
- 5 Answers will vary.