

INDIANAPOLIS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

2022 ANNUAL REPORT

Joe Hogsett
Mayor
City of Indianapolis

Randal P. Taylor
Chief of Police
City of Indianapolis

Established:

In 2007, the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD) was established by General Ordinance 110. G.O. 110 consolidated the former Indianapolis Police Department (1854-2006) with the law enforcement division of the Marion County Sheriff's department. G.O. 110 assigned responsibility for the police department to the Sheriff, who appointed a Chief of Police.

In 2008, the City Council amended the Revised Code to establish IMPD as the police division of the Department of Public Safety. IMPD operated under the day-to-day direction of a Chief of Police appointed by the Director of Public Safety.

In 2016, the City-County Council approved Mayor Joe Hogsett's proposal to dismantle the bureaucratic Department of Public Safety, elevating IMPD to a City department. The Chief of Police is appointed by, and reports directly to, the Mayor of Indianapolis.

In 2018, IMPD first received its national accreditation award from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA®) from its 2013-2017 on-site assessment.

Mission Statement:

We are dedicated to upholding the highest professional standards while serving the community in which we work and live. We are committed to the enforcement of laws to protect life and property, while also respecting individual rights, human dignity, and community values.

We are committed to creating and maintaining active police/community partnerships and assisting citizens in identifying and solving problems to improve the quality of life in their neighborhoods.

Core Values:

- Protection and Preservation of Life
- Community Engagement
- Integrity and Professionalism
- Accountability
- Highest Regard for Individual and Constitutional Rights
- Professional Development

Organizational Structure

Table Effective:
July 2022

Office of the Chief

Office of the Chief

Public Information Office Branch provides the media and public with accurate, up-to-date information about active incidents, investigations, and special events.

Community Engagement and Outreach Bureau Commander Ida D. Williams

The CEOB oversees a citywide effort to strengthen community policing in Indianapolis. Personnel focus on CEOB goals by creating new and innovative partnerships and promoting diversity and inclusion within the department.

Chaplain's Office Section consists of two (2) staff chaplains, one (1) office assistant, and eight (8) volunteer chaplains. The Chaplain's Office uses as our guide Colossians 3:23, "Whatever work you do, put yourself into it, as those who are serving not merely other people, but the Lord."

Immigrant Outreach Unit personnel utilize cultural awareness to help the flow of communication and trust while promoting community values.

Cadet Unit personnel oversee the cadet program. Cadets serve as part-time civilian employees, attending training and gaining exposure to the police profession to better prepare them for future careers as police officers.

Recruiting Unit personnel aim for a diverse workforce; converging life experiences, backgrounds, and individual strengths allows us to better understand those we serve.

Community Engagement and Outreach Unit personnel oversee the Police Athletic and Activities League (Indy PAL) and Children Accepting Responsibility for their Education and Success (CARES).

Emergency Management Bureau Commander Tom Sellas

The Emergency Management Bureau is responsible for the Indianapolis Marion County All Hazards Emergency Operations Plan, which guides our community during disasters.

The Mobile Crisis Assistance Teams (MCAT) are a collaborative effort between the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD) and the Sandra Eskenazi Mental Health Center (SEMHC) to respond to specialized public safety needs in the city, with the focus of treatment in the community rather than in a hospital or jail setting.

IMPD Chief's Honor Guard ensures that a brother/sister officer is honored appropriately when killed in the line of duty and to provide ceremonial colors for ceremonies.

Operations Division

Operations Division Deputy Chief Joshua Barker

Personnel oversee and support IMPD patrol operations, district-level investigations, and the Special Operations Bureau.

Criminal Investigations Division

Criminal Investigations Division Deputy Chief Kendale Adams

Criminal Investigations Division (CID) personnel are responsible for major investigations and investigative support services. Personnel work to prevent and solve crimes by initiating long and short-term investigations, collaborating with local and federal criminal justice agencies, engaging with community partners, investing in technological resources, and advocating for and assisting victims of crime.

In 2022, CID persisted in holding the perpetrators of crime accountable and identifying the root causes of crime in our city. CID established three pillars to form the foundation of all our actions and goals:

- Reduce Gun Violence;
- Build Bridges of Trust; and
- Strive for Divisional Excellence.

Criminal Interdiction Section (CIS) is the lead agency for the HIDTA program Indianapolis Hotel Interdiction and Truck Stops (IHITS). IHITS specializes in the identification and disruption of Drug Trafficking Organizations (DTOs) that are in and pass through Indianapolis. Along with truck stops, DTOs often utilize hotels or motels for their operations. IHITS disrupts this practice by conducting traffic stops and knock-and-talk investigations. Personnel have special training and experience in traffic-related drug and criminal investigations. In addition, CIS Personnel are responsible for coordinating interdiction enforcement activities on roadways and highways to further state and nationwide criminal activities, such as drug trafficking, human trafficking, and violent crimes involving armed suspects.

Internal Governance Section

In 2014 the City-County Council passed an ordinance directing IMPD to undergo national accreditation from Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA®). CALEA® is an independent accrediting authority developed in 1979 by the four prominent United States law enforcement associations; International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE), National Sheriffs Association© (NSA), and the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF).

IMPD completed its final cycle for the 2017-2021 assessment process in October of 2021 and achieved reaccreditation in March of 2022. IMPD is required to meet additional standards as the original four (4) year assessment process.
