

Quokkas

1 Which quokka picture from the book would you use on the cover?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.2, 2.7

2 Using the contents page, how many chapters are there about quokkas?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.5

3 Add labels to the picture on pages 8–9 to identify the different features of the quokka.

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.7

4 Can you add any more labels to the map on page 13 to identify other oceans, the names of continents, and the country you live in?

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.7

5 Write a fact box about baby quokkas for pages 18–19.

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.1, 2.2

6 Create a true-or-false quiz about quokkas.

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.1, 2.2

7 Use the contents, index, and glossary to create a fact file on quokkas.

Common Core State Standards (Reading: Informational text): RI.2.1, 2.2, 2.5

Answers

1 Answers will vary.

2 five

3 Answers will vary. Example answers: fur, tail, paws, claws

4 Answers will vary. Example answers: Atlantic Ocean,

Mediterranean Sea, Asia, Europe, North America, South America, Antarctica, Africa, United States

5 Answers will vary. Example answers: Baby quokkas are called joeys. Joeys feed on their mother's milk and live in a pouch on their mother's tummy for the first six months. Baby quokkas stay with their mothers until they are almost two.

6 Answers will vary.

7 Answers will vary.