REPORT:

Teknack 2024 kicked off with an exhilarating pre-event, "Rob the Bank," organized by the ACM DBIT Student Chapter. This interactive escape room game challenged participants to test their wit, coordination as they aimed to accumulate a specific amount of money within a limited timeframe. With strategic team formations and thrilling gameplay, "Rob the Bank" set the stage for an exciting Teknack experience.

Ahead of the event, meticulous planning and coordination were undertaken by the organizing team led By Joshua Menezes (Vice Chairperson), Ria Dcosta (Asst Pr Head), Tanisha Raorane (Asst Publicity Head), Kenneth Ornello (Asst Sponsorship Head), Rucha Tatkare (Asst Social Media Head), Sussane Lobo (Asst Secretary), Erica Prasad (Asst Admin Head) of the ACM DBIT Student Chapter. Registrations were opened from 9th February to 15th February, attracting 12 enthusiastic teams from various colleges and disciplines. Rules, regulations, and schedules were meticulously set and communicated to participants, ensuring a smooth flow of the event.

On 16th February, starting from 1 pm, participants gathered at the Physics Lab as per their schedule, where the challenge awaited them. Divided into teams of robbers and a professor, players embarked on the mission to collect scattered notes of different currencies within 5 minutes. With adrenaline running high, teams raced against time, communicating strategically and converting currencies accurately with the help of exchange rate charts provided by the professor. Participants immersed themselves in the thrill of the game, enjoying the adrenaline rush of searching for hidden notes, bundling them, and strategizing with their teammates. The interactive nature of the game fostered teamwork, critical thinking, and quick decision-making skills.

As the event concluded by 5 pm, Team Hemant emerged victorious, closely achieving the target amount and securing the cash prize. "Rob the Bank" proved to be a resounding success, offering participants a unique and memorable experience. The event not only provided entertainment but also set the tone for an exciting Teknack 2024. In conclusion, "Rob the Bank" set the stage for Teknack 2024, leaving participants with fond memories, valuable lessons, and a heightened anticipation for the main event.
