- For STEP.3, you will connect your account to whichever bracket systems you plan on using. The options are start.gg, Challenge, and Tonamel. You can be signed up to 1, 2, or all 3!
- The following slides will teach you how to create accounts on each of these platforms.

CREATING YOUR TOURNAMENT SITE ACCOUNT(S)

- For the TEKKEN World Tour 2023 season, events will be hosted by community organizers on start.gg, Challenge, and Tonamel.
- Different organizers use different sites to manage their tournaments, so to take part, you will need to be registered on one or more of these platforms.
- If you do not have accounts on one or more of these platforms, the next slides will explain better how to register on them.

SETTING UP YOUR START.GG ACCOUNT

The logo for start.gg, featuring the text "start.gg" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font. The logo is centered within a dark gray square background that has a subtle, repeating geometric pattern. The square is framed by a blue L-shaped line on the top and left sides, and a pink L-shaped line on the bottom and right sides.

SETTING UP YOUR START.GG ACCOUNT

- If you are going to participate in start.gg-hosted tournaments, you will need a start.gg account
- If you do not have a start.gg account, you can register by going to <https://www.start.gg/>, clicking the login button in the lower left corner, and then following the instructions on the registration tab.
- Once you have set up your account and are logged in, please check your email to verify your account.

The screenshot shows the start.gg website interface. At the top, the logo 'start.gg' is displayed with the tagline 'Community through competition'. Below the logo are two buttons: 'Organize an event' and 'Find events'. In the center, there are 'Login' and 'Register' buttons. A red dashed box highlights the 'Register' button and the registration form that appears below it. The form includes a 'Sign in with Microsoft' option, followed by 'or' and several input fields: 'Email *' (with example 'eg. john.smith@gmail.com'), 'Confirm Email *' (with example 'eg. john.smith@gmail.com'), 'Password *', 'Confirm Password *', 'Birthday' (with format 'mm/dd/yyyy' and a calendar icon), and 'Country *' (with a dropdown menu 'Select a country'). There are two checkboxes: 'I would like to opt out of receiving marketing and promotional emails from start.gg' and 'I accept the terms of service and privacy policy'. At the bottom, there is a reCAPTCHA 'I'm not a robot' checkbox and a 'Sign Up' button.

CONNECTING YOUR START.GG ACCOUNT

- After creating your start.gg account, head back to your Esports Tournament Portal Page:
<https://tekken-esports.bn-ent.net/mypage?lang=en>
- Scroll down to “Connected Bracket System” and click “Connect with bracket system”

CONNECTING YOUR START.GG ACCOUNT

- At the “Connect with bracket system” Page, select “How to connect” in the start.gg section.
- Click “Connect”.

The image shows two screenshots from the Tekken World Tour 2023 website. The left screenshot is titled "Connect with bracket system" and lists three options: start.gg, Challenge, and Tonamel. Each option has a "Not Connected" status and a "How to connect" button. The "start.gg" button is highlighted with a red dashed box. A red dashed arrow points from this button to the right screenshot. The right screenshot is titled "Connecting to start.gg" and contains instructions for connecting and disconnecting the account, along with a "Connect" button highlighted by a red dashed box.

Tournament Management Simplified

SETTING UP YOUR CHALLENGE ACCOUNT

- If you are going to participate in Challenge-hosted tournaments, you will need a Challenge account.
- If you do not have a Challenge account, you can register by going to <https://challenge.com/>, clicking the “Sign Up” button in the upper right corner, and then following the instructions on the registration tab.
- Once you have set up your account and are logged in, you can proceed with the following steps.

The screenshot shows the 'Sign up for Challenge' page on the Challenge.com website. The page is dark-themed with a light gray background for the form fields. At the top right, there is a 'SIGN UP' button highlighted with a red dashed box and an arrow pointing to it. Below the header, the page title is 'Sign up for Challenge' with the subtitle 'Get started easily by signing up to manage your tournaments and events!'. There are three social media login options: 'FACEBOOK', 'TWITTER', and 'DISCORD'. Below these, there is an 'or' separator. The registration form includes fields for 'Username', 'Email', 'Password', and 'Password Confirmation'. There is also a dropdown menu for time zone, currently set to '(-04:00) Eastern Time (US & Canada)', and a dropdown for country, currently set to 'United States'. At the bottom of the form, there is a 'I'm not a robot' checkbox and a 'reCAPTCHA' logo. Below the form, there are two checkboxes: 'I agree to the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy.' and 'Send me occasional product updates and info about major tournaments.'. At the very bottom, there is a large orange button labeled 'CREATE AN ACCOUNT'.

CONNECTING YOUR CHALLENGE ACCOUNT

- If you are already logged into Tonamel, this will automatically connect your ETP and Tonamel accounts.

CHECKING THE SCHEDULE TO SEE UPCOMING EVENTS

- Now that you are registered on the TEKKEN Esports Tournament Portal and have linked your account with your necessary tournament platform(s), you can check the schedule here:

<https://tekken-esports.bn-ent.net/schedule>

- The schedule page has all upcoming events registered in the ETP.

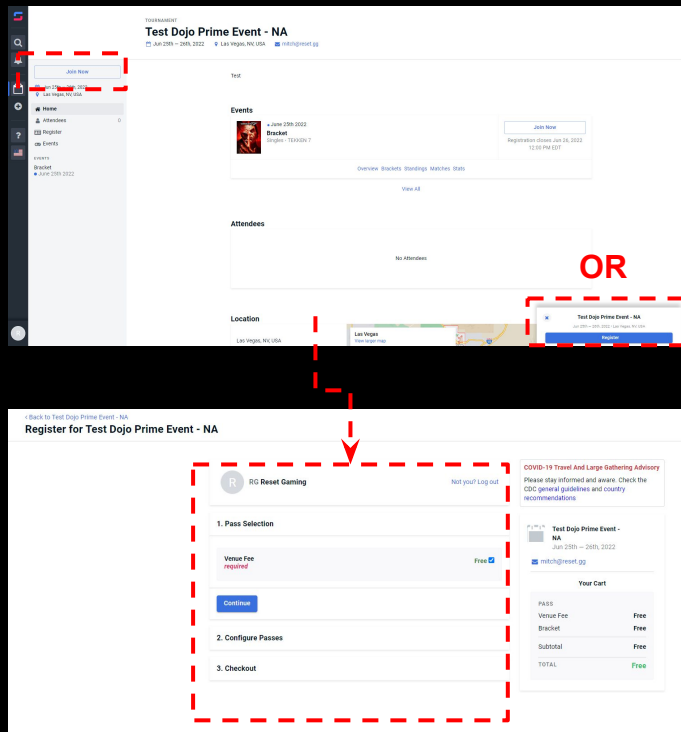

The screenshot shows the TEKKEN Esports Tournament Portal schedule page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the TEKKEN logo, a language dropdown set to 'EN', and a menu icon. Below this is a 'Schedule' header. The page features three filter dropdowns: 'League/Tour' set to 'All', 'Region' set to 'All', and 'Status' set to 'Upcoming'. There is also a sorting dropdown set to 'Asc'. A 'Filtering' section is visible, and a note indicates the page is 'Updated twice per day' with the 'Last update: 5 hours ago'. The main content area displays three upcoming events:

Date	Event Name	Location	Level	Status	Action
