1. Important Information

The App is owned, and the Medallion Service is provided, by Medallion Arts Inc., a Delaware corporation, with a registered address at 169 Madison, Suite 11599, New York, NY 10016 (“Medallion,” “we,” “us,” “our”). Medallion is a software developer. We provide a mobile application and services to music fans (“Fans”) and musical artists (“Artists”). Through our App, Fans can track, curate, and showcase their taste in music and discover music they love. Artists can use the App to build powerful and long-lasting connections with their fans.

Medallion is the controller, as the term is defined by applicable data protection laws, of the personal information that we collect from you when you use the Medallion Service, including when you register for a Medallion account, build your user profile, connect with Artists in the App, engage with Artists and Fans on the App, and otherwise perform actions in the App. This Privacy Policy only covers personal information that is collected by Medallion when you use the Medallion Service. Any personal information that you choose to share with a specific Artist through the App for that specific Artist’s own marketing purposes outside the Medallion Service, including your email address and phone number, shall be governed by that specific Artist’s privacy policy and terms of service, as that Artist is the controller of that information.

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. The latest version will always be reflected in the App. Any changes will be effective immediately upon the posting of the updated Privacy Policy to the App, or such later date as may be specified. You should review this Privacy Policy from time to time and monitor for updates. Your continued use of the Medallion Service after such amendments will be deemed your acknowledgement of these changes to the Privacy Policy.

2. What personal information do we collect about you?

Personal information is any information that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular individual or household. It does not include data which is de-identified or anonymized, such that an individual or household can no longer be identified. ### 3. How do we use the personal information we collect?

We will use the personal information collected to deliver the Medallion Service pursuant to the Terms of Use. More specifically, we will use the personal information we collect through your use of the Medallion Service to:

- Verify your information so that you can create a Medallion account and log into the App;
- Operate, maintain, and improve the Medallion Service;
- Contact you (including by email, SMS message and in-App notifications) for administrative or customer services purposes, for example about purchases you have made via the Medallion Service, or changes to the Medallion Service, our Terms of Use and this Privacy Policy;
- If you opt into marketing communications from us, send emails and/or SMS messages to you about Medallion and the Medallion Service, for example, about new features on the App, Artists you might be interested in, or other Fans you are connected to. If you have also enabled push notifications, you may also receive marketing communications this way. You can unsubscribe from marketing, and/or disable push notifications at any time;
- Detect fraudulent and other impermissible uses of the Medallion Service;
- Conduct surveys, internal research, obtain feedback, and support internal business operations; and
- Process your personal information as described when you provide the information or at the time we collect it.

4. How do we share the personal information we collect?

We share your personal information for various reasons and with various parties.

Publicly available information

As a Fan, the following personal information is available to other users of the Medallion Service, and may be made available publicly:

- your profile, including username, photo, biographical information, and other information from your catalog that you choose to add to your profile
- content you post on the Medallion Service
- Artists and Fans you have connected to on the Medallion Service

- Artists and Fans who have connected to you on the Medallion Service

As an Artist, your Artist Information will be available to all other users of the Medallion Service, and may be made available publicly.

You or another Fan or Artist can share certain information from the Medallion Service on third-party services, including social media and messaging platforms. This includes:

- your profile
- any content you post on the App and details about that content

When this sharing occurs, the third-party service may store a copy of it to support their features.

Personal information you may choose to share

You may also instruct us to share your personal data with certain third parties to enhance or otherwise personalize your experience with the Medallion Service. For example, you may choose to use a Medallion Service feature or connect to a third-party application, service, or device via the Medallion Service in such a way that requires us to share your personal information to enable the connection.

8. How do we keep your personal information safe?

We protect your personal information by implementing and maintaining appropriate technical and organisational measures, consistent with legal requirements where the personal information was obtained, to safeguard the security of the personal information we maintain. We require any Artists or other organizations receiving your personal information to commit to standards required under data protection laws by entering into contracts with them.

However, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we do our best to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk.

9. How long do we hold your personal information?

We only retain personal information for the period of time in which retention is necessary to fulfil a legitimate business purpose and delete or de-identify the information thereafter. These legitimate business purposes include:

- maintaining the performance of the Medallion Service
- making data-driven business decisions about new features and offerings for the Medallion Service
- complying with legal obligations
- resolving disputes

Once we determine there is no longer a legitimate business purpose for retaining your personal information, we will delete or de-identify such information, as determined in our sole discretion and as permitted by law. As described in the below section (“What rights do I have in relation to my personal information?”), to the extent provided by the data protection law of your jurisdiction, you may request that we delete your information or restrict the processing of such information by contacting us as indicated below.

If our retention of information is based on your consent, and you withdraw that consent, we will delete or de-identify such information, as determined in our sole discretion and as permitted by law. We may need to retain some basic information (e.g. in order to ensure you are not sent marketing communications if you have opted out).

10. What rights may I have in relation to my personal information?

Under certain data protection laws and depending on the jurisdiction in which you reside, you may have certain data subject rights.

In particular, if you are located in the European Economic Area, the United Kingdom, or Switzerland, you may have the following rights, including:

Your right of access - You may have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You may have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also may have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You may have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You may have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You may have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You may have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

Your right to withdraw consent - You may have the right to withdraw any consent you previously provided to us and we will apply your preferences going forward.

Your right to lodge a complaint - You may have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

Your rights under “Shine the Light” - California residents are also permitted, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1798.83, to request information regarding Medallion’s disclosure, if any, of their personal information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. If this applies, you may obtain the categories of personal information disclosed and the names and addresses of all third parties that received your personal information for their direct marketing purposes during the immediately prior calendar year (e.g., requests made in 2024 will receive information about 2023 sharing activities). To make such a request, please provide sufficient information for us to determine if this applies to you, attest to the fact that you are a California resident and provide a current California address for our response. You may make this request in writing to Medallion Arts Inc., 169 Madison Ave, Suite 11599, New York, NY 10016.

We will respond to any such data subject request in the manner prescribed by applicable data protection law.

If you are located in other jurisdictions, you may still have similar (or different) rights under the applicable data protection laws. If you ask to exercise these rights from a jurisdiction where you do not have the applicable right, we may consider the request at our discretion.

11. How do I contact you if I have questions or wish to exercise my data subject rights?

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or the personal information we hold about you, or wish to exercise one of your data subject rights as it relates to the personal information collected by Medallion, you can contact us as follows:

For any questions about an Artist's privacy policy or the personal information the Artist holds about you, or to exercise your data subject rights as it relates to personal information controlled by the Artist, please contact the Artist in accordance with their privacy policy.

12. What if I have a complaint?

If you have a complaint about our handling of your personal information that is covered by this Privacy Policy, please contact us as follows:

support@medallion.fm

Medallion Arts Inc., 169 Madison Ave, Suite 11599, New York, NY 10016 USA

If we have not been able to resolve your complaint for you, you can contact your relevant supervisory authority.

In the European Economic Area (EEA), depending on what country you are in, you can find the relevant authority here: https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members\_en.

In the UK, the supervisory authority is the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow SK9 5AF (www.ico.org.uk).

In Switzerland, the supervisory authority is the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner, 1 Feldeggweg, Berne CH3003 (www.edoeb.admin.ch).

Other countries, states, and territories may have their own privacy regulators, who may also be contacted in respect of that country, state, or territory.

For any complaints about the handling of your personal information beyond the scope of this Privacy Policy, please contact the Artist.
